A bathrobe is more than just a hotel amenity; it's the final experience of the day. We leave nothing to chance, paying special attention to the texture on the skin when selecting materials. We carefully select soft, comfortable fabrics with high absorbency to ensure guests feel relaxed, just as they would at home. At the same time, we strive to achieve the perfect weight for our bathrobes; they are not too heavy, yet they feel substantial and lack nothing in texture.
